An Undergraduate Research Conference

Hosted by the Canadian Studies Program
Bridgewater State University, Bridgewater, Massachusetts, USA

Friday, March 23, 2018      8:30 am – 4:30 pm

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS:

The Canadian Studies Program at Bridgewater State University invites paper proposals from undergraduate university students in the United States and Canada for an international research conference on the subject “The United States, Canada, and Quebec in the Age of Trump” to be held on Friday, March 23, 2018. All subjects will be considered, but papers that focus on these themes - 1) The Prime Minister/President/Premier; 2) Immigration and Refugee Policy; 3) First Nations / Native American Rights and Reconciliation; 4) Education and Teacher Training; 5) NAFTA - are especially welcome. Presentations can focus individually on the U.S., Canada, or Quebec; or present a comparison. Panels will consist of three 15- or 20-minute papers, with questions to follow. The deadline for proposals is Friday, February 2, 2018. Acceptance notifications will be made via email by February 6, 2018. Students should email abstracts (200-300-word Word file attachments) to Dr. Andrew Holman, Director, BSU Canadian Studies at a2holman@bridgew.edu.

TRAVEL SUPPORT:

BSU Canadian Studies will provide student presenters travelling from outside of southeastern Massachusetts with up to two (2) nights’ hotel accommodation (March 22, 23). Lunch and supper will be provided for all participants on Fri., March 23. All other travel expenses must be covered by the presenters or their home institutions.
