

Call for Proposals—ACSUS 2025 27th Biennial Conference

Canada: Spaces of Change

November 13-16, 2025

Hyatt at Olive 8, Seattle, WA

The Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS) will host its 27th biennial conference, November 13-16, 2025, in Seattle, WA. The conference is open to all proposals with a significant Canadian focus. We welcome papers and panel proposals from students, professors, independent scholars, and practitioners on all critical perspectives related to the theme “Canada: Spaces of Change.”

How is Canada perceived and portrayed from outside its borders, and by the international community? What are the historical and present-day nuances of Canada-US relations and where are they going? How are the US and Canada changing? What role does the border have in creating or working against familiarity, or belonging? What roles do non-governmental agencies around the world play in shaping Canada’s relationships with the world? Finally, as a professional organization dedicated to the promotion of Canadian Studies, what is ACSUS’s role in these larger questions? Proposals that touch on these themes are encouraged though, as always, submissions on all subjects addressing Canada and Canadian-American relations are welcome.

To submit a proposal, please submit an abstract of not more than 300 words (including a working title), along with a brief vita (2 pages maximum), to www.acsus.org/conference no later than February 1, 2025. Paper presenters must be ACSUS members in good standing. Submissions from graduate students and exceptional undergraduates are warmly welcomed. Information on conference fees and membership rates are available on the ACSUS conference webpage. Confirmations regarding participation at the conference will be sent by April 1, 2025. Questions? Contact ACSUS conference program chair, Sara Beth Keough, sbkeough@svsu.edu.

ACSUS is an organization committed to the principles of equity, justice, and diversity and works to ensure meaningful inclusion.
